ROYAL RECEPTION.

The Prince and Princess of Wales Visit Dublin.

RICHARD GRANT WHITE DEAD.

The Legislative Trouble—General Grant's Condition—Sullivan and Ryan to Meet in Montana.

The Royal Visit.

DUBLIN, April 8.—The Prince and Princess of Wales, and their eldest son, Prince Albert Victor, slept on board the royal yacht Osborne, at Holyhead, last night. They left Holyhead at a quarter past 6 this morning and arrived at Kingstown at 11.30. The Osborne was escorted across the channel by the Fishguard, a paddle-wheel yacht belonging to the navy. Large numbers of people assembled upon the docks to greet the royal visitors. Kingstown was crowded with people and the town profusely decorated with flags and bunting. Numbers of excursion steamers thronged the bay, decked out with gay colored bunting, and six vessels of the channel squadron were in waiting, armed with flags of all nations and with various colored streamers. The Osborne was sighted when still ten miles off shore, and when she drew nearer was greeted with salutes of artillery from the men-of-war. When the Osborne reached the pier and the royal party disembarked, the throng raised a loud and enthusiastic cheer. Dublin presents a truly magnificent appearance, but there are many indications that there is no great popular enthusiasm. Outside the route of the procession, the decoration of the city is far from being general. Another flag has been substituted for the missing one and this is now floating over the Mansion House.

Along the route of the royal procession on its way to Dublin castle many curious crowds in past the escort of the Prince of Wales took all these irregularities good naturedly and secured the displaced spectators by making hands cordially with all of them within their reach. Earl Spencer, who was loudly cheered as he went through the streets of Dublin in the procession. The Lord Mayor, John W. O'Connor, who is a strong Nationalist, who drove in official state with the royal escort, was loudly hissed by Nationalists. A sign of welcome is visible on the City Hall of Dublin, and the fact stands out conspicuously as a sign of contempt.

The Lord Lieutenant received the Prince and his party and the town commission presented an address of welcome. The Princess at the same time made the recipient of a number of bouquets. A crowd which numbered thousands, kept up continuous cheering during the reception and cheered long and loud as the royal guests proceeded to the Mansion House. The Prince and Princess were accompanied by a splendid escort. In answer to an address of welcome presented by the citizens' committee, the Prince said he was delighted to know his acquaintance with Dublin, the passage through the streets of which was everywhere greeted with enthusiasm. Houses on both sides the route were adorned with beautiful streamers, and windows and roofs were crowded with spectators, eager to catch a glimpse of the future King and Queen.

A grand stand had been erected at the railway station. When the train bearing the royal party arrived from the north an immense crowd had assembled. When the Prince and Princess alighted they were greeted with tremendous cheering. They were escorted to the grand stand, where a large number of representatives of the city were seated. When the enthusiasm of the crowd had been quieted, an address of welcome by the Dublin Chamber of Commerce was read. This address dwelt upon the influence of the Prince and Princess would exercise upon the welfare of the people. It also dwelt upon the influence of the Prince and Princess upon the welfare of the people. It also dwelt upon the influence of the Prince and Princess upon the welfare of the people.

The procession was about to start when the station, several bands were playing in rendering the air, "God Save the Prince of Wales." For a considerable excitement was occasioned by the trouble to the royal party. As the horses drawing the carriage emerged from the depot, they were greeted by the sight of the Prince and Princess. The Prince and Princess were seated in the carriage, and the Prince and Princess were seated in the carriage. The Prince and Princess were seated in the carriage, and the Prince and Princess were seated in the carriage.

A Battle Reported. LONDON, April 8.—The Standard has a telegram from a correspondent in Russia, stating that a battle had been fought on the Murghab River, and that it was reported that 500 men were killed. The dispatch was sent in cipher, in order to escape the vigilance of the Russian censors. It is assumed the Russians were defeated.

Big Fire Reported. BORDENTOWN, N. J., April 8.—The extensive cotton mill of Morris Bros. at Graveville, is reported on fire and assistance is asked.

In Egypt.

SUAKEH, April 8.—The guards and Australian contingent, which left here on Monday for Handanb, with orders to build a zereba at that point, have reached their destination.

afternoon, the prince and party proceeded to the Dublin Society's show, at Ball's Bridge. The royal escort on this trip was composed of hussars. This escort was preceded by Earl Spencer, escorted by the lancers. At Ball's Bridge the reception was just as enthusiastic as the one on the College Green, and the cheering along the route was hearty and unanimous. The exhibition was varied, one of the features being a series of extraordinary jumping feats. The grand stand, which had been altered for the occasion, was crowded with prominent persons.

DUBLIN, April 8.—The police lined the railroad from Kingstown to Dublin during the passage of the royal train this afternoon. There was no occasion for their services. On the arrival of the train at the station in Dublin, the crowd broke through the cordon of police, surrounded the carriage of the Prince, cheering him. The Prince stepped from the carriage to the platform and shook hands heartily with scores of people as they crowded around him. The effect was electric; the cheering became frantic and continued in an unbroken roar until the Prince reached Dublin castle.

The Prince telegraphed this evening to the Queen at Aix les Bains, France, that he had a glorious reception. The city is brilliantly illuminated to-night. The police had some difficulty at one time in preventing a collision, when some Nationalists began shouting, "God save Ireland," and attempted to raise cheers for Parnell. An attempt was made to burn a Union Jack which had been stolen from the Mansion House by students, but the attacking party was driven off by the combined force of students and loyalists, headed by 100 policemen with drawn revolvers. The mob took revenge by breaking the windows of the house from which the flag was flying.

Anti-Chinese Foolishness.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—A procession which attracted but little attention at the time is now known to have been productive of serious, and probably, in some cases, fatal results. The City Coroner, on Sunday last, organized the parade for an anti-Chinese procession, and headed by two bands of music paraded the city. Before starting, he harangued the crowd on the Chinese evils. The result was that every Chinaman who happened to cross the route of the processionists was chased by them and ill-treated, if caught. It was supposed at the time that the Chinamen were more frightened than hurt. Colonel Bee, Chinese consul, states to-day, however, that investigation shows that twenty of them were badly injured, many of them badly cut about the head, and one fatally injured. The original intention of the coroner was to parade his band through Chinatown. Had he done so, there would have been a big butchery of the Chinese.

The Legislative Difficulty.

NASHVILLE, April 8.—There is no material change in the Legislative complication. The Republican absentees from the Senate are still in a state of siege in a room in the Maxwell House, the doors of which are guarded by the officers of the Senate, waiting to arrest any of the besieged party who venture out, and prevent others from communicating with them.

This morning, in the circuit court, Judge Reed imposed a nominal fine upon Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms Kline, who disobeyed the writ of habeas corpus to produce the body of Senator Ramsey on the ground of his disobedience of the writ upon authority of less than a quorum. The Senate furnished no shield to the sergeant-at-arms.

Lawton's Case.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The Evening Star, to-night, says: "Gen. Lawton, of Georgia, called upon the President yesterday and said he wanted at the outset to relieve the Administration of all possible embarrassment arising from his appointment to the Russian mission. He said he wanted the President to protect him (Lawton) personally. His desire was that the President should act just as if the appointment had never been tendered."

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The Attorney-General is preparing an opinion with regard to the eligibility of Gen. Lawton to appointment as minister to Russia. It is understood the opinion affirms General Lawton's eligibility.

A Battle Reported. LONDON, April 8.—The Standard has a telegram from a correspondent in Russia, stating that a battle had been fought on the Murghab River, and that it was reported that 500 men were killed. The dispatch was sent in cipher, in order to escape the vigilance of the Russian censors. It is assumed the Russians were defeated.

Big Fire Reported.

BORDENTOWN, N. J., April 8.—The extensive cotton mill of Morris Bros. at Graveville, is reported on fire and assistance is asked.

In Egypt.

SUAKEH, April 8.—The guards and Australian contingent, which left here on Monday for Handanb, with orders to build a zereba at that point, have reached their destination.

General Grant.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The afternoon passed in absolute quiet, as did the morning hours with General Grant.

Mrs. Dr. Newman and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid left their cards.

The expressed opinion of Barker that he felt no apprehension of serious results during the day or night, served to allay immediate anxiety and a shower cleared the street of a throng that had stood and stared at the house.

General Rosser, who has achieved considerable renown in the Confederate cavalry, called at 8.10 p. m. and left a box of flowers. He did not see Grant, but when he came out, he said: "He is better."

At 6.30 p. m. Mrs. General Grant and Colonel Fred. Grant and wife were in the library, and Dr. Douglas was asleep.

At 9.15, General Badeau emerged from the house. He said General Grant was resting comfortably; that the family felt so confident that the general would pass a good night, that they had retired to bed.

At 10.15 p. m. the following bulletin was issued by the physicians: "General Grant has passed a very quiet afternoon. His general condition is the same as the last report. Pulse, 64; temperature, 98.6. He has taken food as usual."

Dr. Shady says he will not send out any more bulletins to-night, unless something unexpected occurs. The general is sleeping, and the doctors think he will have a quiet night.

Richard Grant White Dead.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Richard Grant White died of gastritis at his house here to-day. He has been ill all winter.

He was born in this city on the 23d of May, 1822. For nearly thirty years White has been constantly before the public as a writer of magazine and newspaper articles upon literary and art matters. He was also author of articles upon Shakespeare and Shakespearean literature, in both Appleton's and Johnson's encyclopedias.

Wales in Ireland.

DUBLIN, April 8.—Fully 1,000 students paraded the streets and marched to Dublin Castle, singing loyal songs and carrying Union Jacks on the ends of walking sticks. The royal visitors were loudly cheered wherever they appear.

GRAND DISCOVERY.

Relief for the Suffering. Any Complaint Remedied.

H. E. GROW, No. 170 W. North Temple Street, three-quarters of a block west of the north-west corner of Temple Block, where the afflicted can find me from 9 a. m. until 12 m., and from 2 p. m. until 5 p. m. By a recently discovered and thoroughly tested system of science I propose to inform the afflicted of the nature and cause of their complaints and propose without any assistance from them to tell all their symptoms and recommend the proper and efficient remedies of relief. I never yet have been mistaken or failed to give the requisite relief, as the few testimonials hereto appended fully testify and numerous others could be added. Any party suffering from any and all complaints, to whom I cannot give a true and correct diagnosis of their cases and afford permanent and speedy relief will be charged nothing for my labors in their behalf.

Remember the address, and know that we have grown up in the City of Salt Lake and have a reputation to protect and defend in making this announcement.

H. E. GROW.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 3, 1885.

Mr. H. E. Grow: Sir—For seven years, through a rheumatic affection, I was partially and might say entirely deprived of the use and benefit of my right arm and its muscular members. By a strict observance of your system of treatment I have been restored to a healthy action of the diseased member, and also relieved of a persistent and continual headache, the result, as I think, of the first complaint.

Very Respectfully,

BEAUCHAMPEL RIDD.

SALT LAKE CITY, NINETEENTH WARD.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, April 5, 1885.

Mr. H. E. Grow: Dear Sir—This is to certify, that by your system of treatment of weak eye (I have lost one by disease), catarrh of the head and other sympathetic diseases, I have experienced immediate and permanent relief, and recommend your treatment as effective and curative. There is no humbug about it, and needs but a trial to produce the relief demanded and expected.

Nineteenth Ward, Salt Lake City.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 7th, 1885.

Mr. H. E. Grow: Dear Sir—I had suffered with rheumatism for four months, and it settled in my left arm, causing it to shrink and become paralyzed, and I had lost the use of it for three months, and I have taken ten of your treatments and have been restored to my health.

Very Gratefully,

ELIZABETH BOYD.

at M. Chadd's.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 7th, 1885.

Mr. H. E. Grow: Dear Sir—I am very grateful to you in behalf of my son, who through your treatment is made well, having suffered for years with lameness in one leg, through the contraction of the cords. And for the benefit of the public, please make it known.

Yours Truly,

JOHN C. SANDBERG.

THE NORTHWEST REBELLION.

The Eastern War Cloud—The Opera Festival—Half-Breed Claims—The Mahdi Denounced.

The Eastern War Cloud.

BERLIN, April 8.—The belief hitherto prevailing in official circles, that peace will be maintained between England and Russia, has undergone a distinct change. A dispatch from St. Petersburg says the war party is getting the upper hand and the Czar has agreed to appoint General Gourko and General Kourpoukine to leading commands in the Afghan campaign in the event of war. Each will lead an army corps of 50,000 men.

Owing to the scare among the German holders of Russian stocks, heavy selling orders were received to-day from Berlin and Frankfurt.

Field Resigned.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Cyrus W. Field has resigned as one of the executive committee of the Manhattan Railroad Company, and to-day of the executive committee of the Western Union Telegraph Company. This, he does, to carry out a purpose, long since known to his friends, of retiring when he had completed fifty years of active business in New York. He came to this city in April, 1835, a boy of 15. After half a century, he can claim release and, though he retains his interest and remains a director in both companies, he wishes to throw the active management on younger men. His eldest son takes his place as a member of the executive committee of the Manhattan company. Mr. Field sails next month to spend the summer abroad.

The Half-Breed Claims.

QUEBEC, April 8.—Hon. John Costigan, Minister of Internal Revenue, in a speech at Tevis, defended the policy of government in the matter of the Northwest rebellion. Concerning the half-breed claims, he said they were unjust and should not be recognized. The Meftis had not been wrongly treated by the government, but after settling the lands they had obtained on Red River, they had demanded others on the Saskatchewan.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—A committee, representing the Grand Army of the Republic, called on the President to-day and presented an appeal for the retention in the government of old soldiers. President Cleveland expressed himself very strongly in favor of the object of their visit.

The acting secretary of the treasury has requested all persons having preferred claims against the New Orleans Exposition payable from the appropriation made by the sundry civil act, of March 3, 1885, to transmit the same to the secretary.

Savage Fight.

FORT SMITH, Ark., April 8.—A private letter from the chief of the Seminole Indians says that Thomas Cloud, in command of a squad of Seminole Light Horse, crossed the Canadian river last week to arrest some Indian fugitives. They arrested two, but were resisted by Hector Rogers, a creek negro desperado. Rogers fought like a tiger, killing Captain Tom Cloud and mortally wounding Sam Cudjia. Before he fell, Rogers was shot all to pieces, and died fighting savagely.

Barrios' Death Not Known.

SAVADOR, April 8.—An inquiry, to-day, from the office of the Associated Press, in this city, to the manager of the Central Southern American Cable Company at Libertad, San Salvador, asking for definite information regarding the death of General Barrios, elicited the following response: "It is a positive fact that a sanguinary battle raged for four days on the frontier of San Salvador. Beyond that, no other positive fact is yet known."

The Northwest Rebellion.

WINNIPEG, April 8.—The troops camped on Monday twelve miles out of Fort Quappelle. They suffered terribly from cold, the mercury falling from 60 degrees below zero to 30 degrees below. The wind blew thirty miles an hour and had a clean sweep across the prairie and through the camp.

After Mediums.

BALTIMORE, April 8.—The police arrested many mediums and clairvoyants to-day, and each was fined $25. The "Witch of Wall Street" had no funds and went to jail.

Fifty Millions of Them.

There are 50,000,000 of people in this country, and more are coming every day. Last year more than 700,000 bottles of Brown's Iron Bitters were sold, and the demand is daily increasing. This shows the great popularity of this wonderful iron tonic. A popularity based on actual merit and complete success in the treatment of debility, dyspepsia, rheumatism and liver troubles. Mr. W. H. Fleming, 631 N. 12th Street, Philadelphia, says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters with the happiest results, for toning the system and for loss of appetite."

French Facts.

PARIS, April 8.—The Chamber of Deputies took one ballot for President. Fallieres received 163 votes, Floquet, 147 and Philippoteaux 83. No choice.

The Senate voted a credit of $30,000,000, for carrying on operations in Tonquin, and adjourned.

Floquet was elected President of the Chamber of Deputies on the third ballot, receiving 179 votes to 175 for Fallieres.

The report that peace was concluded with China without the knowledge of the French ministry, is declared to be untrue. President Grevy, it is said, in the conference with Brissson on Monday, stated the exact position of the negotiations. The ministers decided to secure the vote of the Tonquin war credit before the conclusion of peace. They found that nearly the whole amount asked had already been expended.

Denouncing the Mahdi.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 8.—An official proclamation has been issued, stating that the Mahdi, acting in opposition to the principles of Islamism, has possibly carried his seditious audacity to the extent of issuing further incendiary manifestoes in Hedjaz and Yemen against the Ottoman dominions. The Mahdism is an impostor and robber chief of the worst kind, and will treat the new apostle of fanaticism and barbarism with the same profound contempt as heretofore.

Want Carpenter Removed.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Forest and Stream will, to-morrow, publish an article, calling on Secretary Lamar to remove R. E. Carpenter, present superintendent of the Yellowstone National Park, on charges of neglect of duty; working in the interests of the improvement Company syndicate; placing obstacles in the way of other superintendents, who are trying to do their duty, and of having laid claim to a portion of the National Park when it was supposed the Vest bill would pass.

The Opera Festival.

CHICAGO, April 8.—An audience of 6,000 was at the opera festival to-night, when Mlle. Nevada made her debut here in "Mirella." She was given a warm greeting and after concluding an aria in the second scene of the first act, was rapturously cheered, and at the close of the act was recalled three times. Scudchi joined in the honors of the night and was also warmly applauded. The attendance upon the opera has in no wise diminished, and the statement is made that every seat in the body of the house has now been sold for the entire season.

Won't Exhibit.

LONDON, April 8.—The preparations of American exhibitors for the London inventor's exhibition, are disappointing to the hopes entertained in this country that America would show herself in force. Many persons, who had signified their intentions to exhibit articles, and to whom space had been allotted, have withdrawn, thinking the American exhibition, to be held in 1889, will show their goods to better advantage.

Action Endorsed.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The Tammany committee on organization to-night, adopted a resolution endorsing the prompt action taken by the administration to protect the interests and rights of American citizens on the Isthmus of Panama.

Pigeon Shoot.

SAN ANTONIO, April 8.—A match pigeon shoot between Dr. Carver and A. H. Penrose, the San Antonio cowboy, for $500 a side, 100 birds, thirty yards rise, came off to-day. Penrose won, score, 90 to 81. Every bird of 200 was hit.

Two Days Suiciding.

NEW YORK, April 8.—It was discovered that Nelson Edwards, an East street dentist, suicided by cutting his throat and body with a razor. The physician's opinion is that the man was two days killing himself.

Sullivan and Ryan.

NEW YORK, April 8.—John L. Sullivan and "Paddy" Ryan to-day agreed to contest with small gloves at Butte City, Montana, on June 16th, for the championship belt, $2,500 and two-thirds of excursion moneys.

Wyoming Stock Convention.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 8.—The Stock Growers' Association reconvened at 10 o'clock a. m. It was the largest attendance of the session. The finance report, after some discussion, was adopted. The expenses of the past year were $48,929.32; receipts, $37,941.06; a deficit of $11,918.26. The question of assessment was settled by the adoption of the following resolution:

It is resolved, That this association appoint a board of equalization, to regulate an equal and equitable assessment on all of its members from Wyoming, Nebraska, Dakota, Montana and Colorado; and that such assessment, be equal in percentage per head, and share alike; and that each State or Territory above named be represented by two members of this association, from each State and Territory named above.

It is further resolved, That nothing herein contained shall apply to any further assessment.

The report of the round-up committee was then taken up and adopted. The veterinarian of the association reports that there are no contagious diseases among the cattle of Wyoming, but owing to the great danger of importing contagion, the Governor of this Territory has given notice of his proclamation prohibiting the introduction of cattle from certain localities. This action the report considered wise and timely.

A resolution prohibiting the racing of horses on ranches, or the playing of cards, as injurious to the morals of camps, was almost unanimously adopted. The old board of officers was re-elected for the ensuing year.

Adjourned sine die.

Infernal Machine.

LONDON, April 8.—An infernal machine was found to-day, in the Nately military hospital, at Portsmouth. The authorities had been previously warned to look out for an explosion.

THE CULVERTS on either side of Commercial Street, are deserving of attention from the proper authorities, especially the east side; the butcher shop on the corner of the street, dump all their slops into it and clog it up, so that it smells like a depopulated slaughter house.

FIVE OR SIX soldiers from Fort Douglas, on a drunken spree, about 1 o'clock this morning, created a great deal of noise on East Tenth Street, in front of Teasdale's store. Nightstratchman Dohson and Officer George Hilton interfered and the result was that one of the "boys in blue" was taken to the calaboose, with a badly smashed hand.

The Boy That Watched the Pot.

In a certain village in Maryland a small boy kicked up a breeze in the parish church last Sunday. It seems that a certain good woman bought a calf's head and put it on to boil, leaving her little boy to mind while she went to the church close by.

The minister had reached his fifty-fifth birthday, when a small boy stuck his head in the door and whispered: "Mamma?"

The good woman recognized her son instantly, and began to make signs for him to leave the door.

"Mamma?" again came the whisper, this time a little louder.

The mother shook her finger at the boy warningly, and indulged in familiar pantomime with which she was accustomed to awe her son. But it didn't work worth a cent. The boy was excited and in earnest, as the denouement will show. Raising his voice he shouted:

"Mamma, you needn't wink and blink at me, but you'd better come right away, for the calf's head is buntin' all the dumplings out of the pot."
